

2003

- [July] Preservation Metadata Schema and Logical Data Model (iteration 2)
- Legal Deposit legislation enacted

2004

- [July] NDHA Programme established with $24 million dollars of Government funding
- [Sept] Metadata Extraction Tool
- Preservation metadata schema (XML version)

2005

- [Sept] Object Management System (OMS)
- [Sept] Interim Electronic Legal Deposit Online Submission mechanism and processes
- [Nov] Sun Centre of Excellence for Digital Futures in Libraries
- [Nov/Dec] NDHA Business Requirements and Functional Requirements Specifications

2006

- [Sept] Web Curator Tool
- RFP for the NDHA published

2007

- [Mar] NDHA / DigiTool Gap Analysis completed
- Two digital preservation analyst positions created for the NDHA
- NDHA project funds 26 positions across the Library

2008 – NDHA LAUNCHED

- [Oct] Rosetta v1 and Indigo in production
- [Oct] First image added to the NDHA
- First Whole of Domain Web Crawl
- NDHA Phase 2 requirements begun
- NLNZ Digital Preservation Strategy
- Migration of content from the OMS to the NDHA began
- NDHA reporting began

2009

- Official launch of the NDHA at Parliament
- Development of NDHA Phase 2 functions including the Format Library, extractors and preservation functions

2010

- Second Whole of Domain Crawl
- [Mar] Rosetta v2 in production
- NDHA Phase 2 functions released
- [Nov] Storage migrated to IBM XIV

2011

- [Apr] Completed content migration from the OMS to the NDHA
- [May] First Papers Past deposit into NDHA production
- [June] Joint Digital Preservation Strategy v1 (NLNZ & ANZ)
- [Sept] NDHA Permanent Repository rebuilt from tape

2012

- [Jan] Archives NZ's first deposit into production NDHA
- [July] Rosetta User Group (RUG) established
- [July] Rosetta v3 in production
- [Oct] One millionth object added to the NDHA
- First set of digital preservation policies

2013

- [Jan] NDHA Permanent Storage moved to Revera IaaS in production
- Third Whole of Domain Crawl
- Planning began to provide Digital Preservation as a Service

2014

- [May] NDHA begins to use Revera's data centre infrastructure
- Digital Preservation website launched
- Digital Preservation Strategy v2

2015

- Fourth Whole of Domain Crawl
- Fixity Assurance Policy v1
- [Apr] Completed NDHA infrastructure move to Revera IaaS and Molesworth Street data centre decommissioned
- [June] Rosetta v4 in production

2016

- [Jan] NDHA integration with Tiaki
- Fifth Whole of Domain Crawl
- [April] Rosetta v5 in production
- First format migration (from unknown format to text)
- [Oct] NDHA integration with Alma
- [Nov] First Twitter harvests (Kaikoura earthquake, local body elections)

2017

- Digital Preservation Web Engineer position established
- First Fairfax objects added to the NDHA
- Sixth Whole of Domain Crawl
- [Nov] Second Twitter harvests (General Election)

2018

- [Feb] Seventh Whole of Domain Crawl
- Second format migration (from WordStar to HTML)
- NDHA 2.0 planning began
- [Nov] Web Curator Tool 2.0 released in cooperation with KB Netherlands